

Language Centre of the University of Verona

We are glad to inform you that the Language Centre of the University of Verona organizes a two-weeks Italian language course for international students from July, 6th to 17th. Lectures will be given from Monday to Friday (4 hours a day) for 40 hours lecture total.

Participation is limited to a maximum of 16 students. Priority will be given to students coming from our partner Universities on a first-come first-served basis, and tuition will be waived.

All the costs related to travel, accommodation and living expenses will be at the students' charge.

Students will be able to register online (website: <http://fermi.univr.it/cla/>) from June, 1st 2009 on. Participants who are interested in receiving support in finding an accommodation in Verona should get in contact with ISU (International Students Union, <http://www.isuverona.it>) writing to accommodation@isuverona.it by June, 15th 2009.
